ABOUT

With 7 years of experience as a designer, I've developed a strong track record of creating innovative solutions that help brands establish their identity, elevate their presence, and expand their reach. My work has driven increased social media engagement, streamlined user journeys, facilitated online payments, and generated interest through captivating visuals that created leads. I'm seeking an elevated role where I can contribute to a collaborative team, mentor others, and continue to grow as a designer while shaping impactful, strategic design initiatives.
